1. At the former machine shops at Chi La (雞刺), near Liuchow, there is a labor camp, at which on 26 July a draft of 800 new prisoners arrived. About 500 of these were alleged guerrillas captured by Communist troops in North-west Kwangsi. The remaining 300 were Lo-Lo and White I tribesmen deported from the Weihsimuliman (維西木里曼) area of Yunnan.
2. There is another labor camp at Wutsunhsu, just south of Nanning, at which, also on 26 July, about 1,000 prisoners arrived from Ch'in Hsien (108-37, 21-58), where they had been rounded up in an anti-guerrilla drive.
3. In North Anhwei there are several labor camps, one at Lang Yeh (琅瑯) Hill in Hsu Hsien. This contains 2,170 former Nationalist officials and officers.
4. Others are at Lung Ching (龍井) Temple and Changkungshih (長空市), both near Fengyang (117-36, 32-53). These two together contain 3,460 prisoners.
5. The inmates are employed in agriculture and road-mending, and after each long day's work they receive "political training".
